

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What is the DLA Print Center?

The DLA Print Center is a state-of-the-art digital print shop serving the greater Los Angeles area. It is also the social enterprise component of the YWCA Greater Los Angeles' workforce development program known as the Digital Learning Academy which is centered on fulfilling the technical skills gap in Los Angeles by providing free technology training for at risk youth.

2. Where is the DLA Print Center located?

The DLA Print Center is housed in YWCA GLA's Hollywood Studio Club building located at 1215 Lodi Place, Los Angeles, CA 90038 (Cross streets: Santa Monica Blvd and Gower St)

3. What are the hours of the DLA Print Center?

DLA Print Center is open Monday thru Friday 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM.

4. What products does the DLA Print Center offer?

The DLA Print Center offers a wide variety of printed products and services. Core competencies include brochures, flyers, letterhead, business cards, booklets, calendars, post cards, invitations, labels, NCR forms, event tickets, presentation folders, banners, posters and much more. Graphic design services are available upon request.

5. How do the prices of the DLA Print Center compare to other digital print shops?

The DLA Print Center's prices are lower than local digital print shops.

6. How do I place an order with the DLA Print Center?

Call us today at (213) 516-3557 for a quote!

7. What is the turnaround time?

The DLA Print Center caters to the needs of its customers.

8. Who supports the DLA Print Center?

Our partners include Xerox Corporation, JP Morgan Chase, Toyota, the City of Los Angeles, Wells Fargo, United Way and many more.

9. Why should I become a customer of the DLA Print Center?

Becoming a printing partner of the DLA Print Center provides products of superior quality and stellar customer service. In addition, your print dollars fund opportunities for disadvantaged youth to become trained for entry level placement in technology-based careers. A win-win for everyone!

10. How can I get more details about the DLA Print Center?

Please call (213) 516-3557 or email DLAPrintCenter@ywcagla.org